"LIBERTY AND UNION—NOW AND FOREVER ONE AND INSEPARABLE."—Webster.

VOL. 2.

QUINCY, PLUMAS COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 9, 1884.

NO. 11.

NEW YEAR OF 1884.

How pure, how fair, how beautiful
Appears the earth to-day,
For snowy wreaths of beauteous white
On mead and hill-top lay.
Then sing, my heart, be joyful,
Be gone each gloomy fear,
For this is freedom's natal day,
"All hail! the glad New Year."

The bright sunlight is streaming,
A thousand sparkling gems
Are glittering on the tree-tops,
Like pearls in diadems.
Then raise, ye sons of freedom,
And sound the merry cheer,
For a nation brother more free,
On this bright glad New Year.

How pure and emblematic—
A nation clothed in white,
Its swaddling bands of slavery's night,
Just merging from infancy
Then raise, your voices freemen,
For right has now its way,
And the glad new year's jubilee,
"Tis freedom's 'natal day.'"

From Mississippi's waters,
And Saragamo's turbid stream,
Like a summer noonday's dream,
A thousand hearts are waking
To notes of gladness cheer,
And ten thousand hearts are singing
We're free, this glad New Year.

JOE SMITH, JR.

Some twenty or thirty years ago, one Joe Smith, a worthless fellow, pretended to have had a vision, and that the angel Maroni appeared to him and informed him of the existence of certain plates, that were hidden in a hill in a county somewhere near the center of the State of New York. Joe claimed that he went there, and that the same angel pointing out the spot he dug them up, and being furnished by the said Maroni with a key translated their contents into the Book of Mormon. Other accounts, and probably more correct, say that the book was written by Solomon Spaulding, a half-cracked preacher, and that he used Joe as his tool to circulate the book and assume the character of "prophet." Be that as it may, the imposture was singularly successful, and Joe soon found himself at the head of a large sect who swallowed the imposition. They, unfortunately, believing, or pretending to believe that they were the Lord's chosen people, and that the earth and all upon it belonged to them, evinced a disposition to lay violent hands upon their neighbors' property, especially in the matter of horses, for which animals they had an especial weakness. We should have said that the Mormons, for such those were called, who believed in Joe, had gathered at Nauvoo, Illinois, and there was then and still is many honest people among them. After suffering to a considerable extent from the depredations of the Mormon thieves the citizens of that vicinity became indignant, and by a vigilance committee process shot the "prophet" while in jail, where he had been placed for some crime. After the death of Smith, Brigham Young, an able and shrewd but utterly unprincipled man, by some hocus pocus arrangement, became the head of the Church, and has managed its affairs with such ability that he has made them a powerful people. The introduction of polygamy by Young, on a pretended revelation, doubtless had a strong tendency to attract the lustful of all nations to that "Church." The removal from a civilized country to the then wilds of Utah was a necessity not to be avoided, and at the present time the "brethren" wallow in their filth in the many wife system in Salt Lake City and vicinity. Lately, however, Joe Smith Jr., who was brought up by his mother in Illinois, and who never has had anything to do with Brigham's crowd, has concluded to follow in the footsteps of his father, and endeavor to out his brother impostor, Brigham. He entirely repudiates the polygamy system introduced by Young, and cleaves to the doctrines preached by Joe Sr. He has made his appearance at Salt Lake City and claimed his "rights." They would have been given to him by Brigham's Danites in the shape of a knife across his throat; but Gen. Connor being a Catholic, with 1,500 men to back him, was a wholesome restraint upon such a quiet arrangement. The General is disposed to see fair play, and cares but little who wins. The consequence is that the "son and heir" has it his own way, and a Joe Smith, Jr.'s church has been formed right under the nose of the autocrat, Young, much to his annoyance. From this church, Brother Dykes has been ordained by Apostle Briggs to convert the benighted inhabitants of California, and it was him who addressed an audience at the Chinese Chapel on Sixth, near I street, on Sunday afternoon. There were at first about twenty persons present; but the audience was increased to at least fifty before the services were concluded. Of these, probably about fifteen or twenty were interested, the balance being mere lookers on.

The exercises were opened by Brother Webb by a prayer in which he "inspired the H" in the most awful manner. He was a man of about forty years of age, dressed in a short black frock coat and pants and a white vest. The prayer was earnest, though it peculiarities provoked a smile. He prayed earnestly for the brother who had just arrived across the plains. Of the audience, there were about a dozen ladies, all apparently of the "Pike" persuasion. The chapel which has been used in the desperate attempt to convert Chinamen to Christianity is in rather a dilapidated condition. The Rev. Mr. Shuck, its chief patron, died recently in Dixie in the faith that a Chinaman was better than an African of American descent. There is still in the place a Chinese library, of a quantity of books containing their strange hieroglyphics can be called such; and a board containing Chinese characters is hanging up each side of the pulpit.

From the fact that Brother Webb prayed for the branches at San Francisco and Folsom, we infer that the new or rather old sect is spreading in this State. The Brother aforesaid gave way to Brother Dykes, a rather good looking man with a heavy greyish beard and mustache, and apparently thirty-five years of age, with a rapid delivery. Mr. Dykes stated that the doctrine of polygamy was derived from devils. It could never have come from God, for it was started by the descendant of Cain who was cursed by God for the murder of his brother, and who went into the land of Nod to get him a wife. The preacher's text was from the second chapter of Malachi, thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth verses. Cain in the land of Nod, built up his family. They asked nothing from God. They made images and introduced witchcraft and polygamy. The first flagrant case of the kind was a descendant but six times removed from the first murderer, who took two wives. He slaughered his own grandfather and grandson, which showed that he was a legitimate descendant of Cain. He believed that polygamy caused the flood, for a short time before gentlemen who were admirers of the ladies had concluded to take every one who was at all fair for their wives. God in his wrath punished mankind for this, and preserved Noah who had but one wife, and God looking upon Noah as a single wife man preserved him. Ham, one of his sons, was the only one who had gone among the polygamists and taken a wife. Nimrod, the grandson of Ham, was a great hunter, and after he had conquered the wild beasts, which after the flood were both numerous and ferocious, turned upon his fellow men and established a despotism. His people undertook to build the Tower of Babel to reach heaven, but "from circumstances over which they had no control" the project was a failure.

It was claimed by the polygamists that Abraham was one of them, but the evidence was that Abraham was urged by his wife to take Hagar, a bond woman, for a wife, and he weakly consented, though promised by the Lord that he should have a child by his first wife. The result of the advice was the birth of Ishmael. Afterwards the Almighty commanded Abraham to cast out the bond woman and her child and "blessed" Ishmael by decreeing that his hand should be raised against all men and that the hands of all men should be raised against him. If this was "blessing" polygamy he could not see it. Ishmael was a child of the flesh not of spirit. He was of the earth—earthly. From him descended the Arabs, who are wanderers in the desert. He was a sample of the first polygamy child born after the flood. His mother, Hagar, was cast out and there were many Hagar's at Salt Lake who would be cast out. And then there was Jacob who arrived at the residence of Rachel dead broke, with not money enough to pay his hotel bill. He was compelled to sleep out, and take a stone for a pillow. His dreams were sweet for all that, for he saw angels descending from Heaven upon a ladder. Fathers at that time was in the habit of selling their daughters for they do now in Turkey. Jacob had no cash, specie or greenbacks, but offered to give seven years' service for her, and the old fellow agreed to it. Marriages in those days were a primitive arrangement. There were no diamond weddings then. The old scoundrel had a daughter named Leah, with bad eyes, whom he palmed off in the night upon Jacob, as Rachel would always sell, and Leah was wild cat stock. Jacob, upon finding the swindle gave another seven years' service for Rachel, and that was the way he came by two wives. Even then he had to set aside Leah, for two women never did and never can live peacefully in one house under such circumstances. The polygamists, after they were delivered out of Egypt, set up a brass idol, to the manufacture of which the ladies contributed their jewelry. The heathens had several wives. Idolatry, witchcraft, barbarism and polygamy always go together. No civilized nation ever tolerated polygamy. The doctrine created envy, jealousy, heart burning tears, and is consequently not of God. It was expressly forbidden by the book of the "Church of Christ, of Latter Day Saints."

Brother Webb said that the doctrines of the Church were always opposed to polygamy. He denied that it was the doctrine of the Church, and called all who supported it apostates. [Ninety-nine out of one hundred are apostates, then, Brother Webb seems to have forgotten that the head of his Church is supposed and believed by his people to have revelations, and polygamy was one pretended to have been received.] Polygamy was not the doctrine of the founder of the Church, and he was bitterly opposed to it. He quoted from the book of Mormon, and their doctrine and covenants to show that it was positively forbidden and disavowed. The excuse of the polygamists for going to Utah was that they could not live among other people with their doctrines, and they should not be permitted to. Brother Dykes had started from Salt Lake without purse or scrip, but with three dollars in his pocket, and walked all the way to California. He was tugging at his coat to make him quit, and he would not suggest a collection, but he who gave as much as a cup of cold water to one of His children, should be rewarded.

The services closed with singing the doxology and a benediction. After the services a Communion was held, the wine being contained in a Wigwag Bitters bottle.—Bee.

"DRUNK AS A BEEHIVE."—A Washington correspondent of the New York Independent says: There was a sight to be seen in broad daylight a few days ago in front of the Presidential mansion, which gave those who witnessed it a shocking idea of onward strides which the vice of intemperance has made in "good society" during the last few years. A woman clad in the richest and most fashionable garments, with diamonds flashing from her slender fingers in the giant West sunshine, sat upon the stone balustrade, unable to proceed on her homeward walk without betraying herself. At last she rose and started on, away to and fro, and yet soon rested again, utterly unable to proceed. The carriage of a foreign minister passed by—the poor woman was noticed—and it turned, stopped, took in the lady and carried her to her luxurious home, for the lady is wealthy and occupies a high social position, but she was drunk in the streets of Washington!

CONDITIONAL.—Petroleum V. Naseby, Esq., writes that he had an interview with the President recently, which terminated thus:

"Is there any little thing I kin do for you?" says he.

"Nothin' pertikler. I wood accept a small Post-office, if sitosattid within ezy range n'r a distillery. My politike daze is well nigh over. Let me but see the old party wunst moar in the assenancy—let these old ize wunst moar behold the Constooshun ez it is; the Union ez it wuz, and the Nigger waze he ought 2 be, and I will rap the mantel n'r private life round me, and go in 2 delirium tremens happy. I hev no abishen. I am in the sear and yaller leaf. These whitin' lox, them sunken cheek, warn me that age and whiskey hev done her perfeck work, and that I shell soon go bent. Linkin, scorn no my words. I have sed. Adoo."

CORRESPONDENCE.

WOLF CREEK, Dec. 23, 1883.

EDITOR UNION:—Thinking a few lines would be acceptable to your readers from this portion of the county, I will endeavor to post them up as regards the claims on this creek. Most of them have been worked successfully for four years past, and they still promise well. The first claim as you come up the creek, is that of Messrs Lowery and Smith, who have just finished their drain, and commenced work. It is thought to be the best as yet opened, and pays from six to eight dollars per day to the hand.—They intend putting in a flume in the spring, and Jack says they will take it out by "bushels." Several other companies are at work above them, opening new claims, and it is now thought that the lower portion of the creek, which never has paid very well, will turn out to be the best. Near the head of the creek the claims of Messrs. Waggoner, Vance & Co., is now being worked and with a small head of water pays from four to eight dollars a day. In the spring they will work it with a pipe, and their only worry now is, that by the time they commence piping, the premium on gold will be so low, and the war-tax so high, they will have nothing left but iron rock.

The claims of Messrs. Waggoner & Vansickel which paid so well last season it is expected will do equally as well the next, and they are making preparations for a good season's work. Messrs. Lowery & Smith have also a claim near the head of the creek, from which they expect to clear four thousand dollars, as the result of the spring's work. Mr. D. Zearing, who owns the Morgan claim from which he took out the twenty ounce piece last summer, has made his preparations for work in the spring, and he says "by jingo, if he gets another big piece, he will not send it to San Francisco to sell; too much quartz for so little gold."

Mr. E. Morgan has a claim upon a dry ravine at the head of the creek, and is hard at work digging ditches, building cabin, &c., for spring work.

It is expected that more gold will be taken out the present season here than ever before, and I hope their present expectations may be realized, as a better set of boys than those upon this creek you seldom meet with. They have the best wishes of Yours truly,

Snow Shoz.

A SERVANT girl, during a steamboat trip, lost a certificate of good character given her by her former employer. Having shown the certificate to the captain when she got on the boat, she applied to him for a recommendation in lieu of the one she had lost. The Captain wrote for her the following: "This is to certify that Miss — had a good character when she got on my boat at B—, but lost it on the trip down."

A GOOD story is told of one of the petty German Princes who attended the Congress at Frankfurt. Somebody made him a present of an Armstrong gun, and he was obliged to ask leave of a neighboring king to have the target put up in his kingdom, his own not being big enough for the Armstrong range. Speaking of small countries calls up what Voltaire said of Switzerland: "When I shake my wig it powders the whole Republic." It suggests also the embarrassment which the Hoosier experienced in England, saying that he dared not shake himself lest he fell off.

Two ragged little urchins, whose parents paid more attention to the bottle than to the training of their children, were in the habit of seriously annoying their neighbors who lived close by with their noise while at play in front of her house. One day the lady of the house came to the door and told them to be quiet or go home immediately. "Just hear she a-orderin' we," said one of the children to the other, "when us don't belong to she!"

A venerable lady in her hundredth year lost her daughter who had attained the good old age of eighty. The mother's grief was great; and to a friend who came to console with her, she remarked, "Oh dear! I knew I never should be able to raise that child!"

TAX SUMMIT BOUNDARY.—The press of California, judging from what we have seen, are likely to heartily oppose the granting of the petition of our Constitutional Convention for a summit boundary between the two States.—Enterprise.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a called meeting of Lassen Lodge, held at their Hall in Susanville, January 24, 1884, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That this Lodge learns with sincere sorrow of the death of our beloved Brother, Israel Jones, whose goodness of heart, uprightness of character, and honorable Masonic conduct, have endeared him to the members of this Lodge; and to the community.

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to wait upon the brethren of Plumas Lodge, and represent that the house of our deceased brother was in this place; that he has worked with our lodge, and acted as its Master for several months, and to request permission to bring his remains to this place for interment.

Resolved, That the Committee be instructed to inform the Brethren of Plumas Lodge that to several members of this Lodge our deceased brother has expressed a wish that in case he died in the vicinity, he might be interred at Susanville, and to insist that his dying wish might be granted.

Resolved, That the Committee be instructed to extend to the brethren of Plumas Lodge an invitation to attend the funeral of our Brother at Susanville, and to make the necessary arrangements for the removal of his remains to this place.

A COOL CUSTOMER.—A seedy individual, last evening, entered the bar-room of the Union Hotel. After calmly and quietly surveying the place, he walked past a table on which was unostentatiously displayed some dried beef, crackers and cabbage, to the farther corner where were ranged some dozen plates filled with oysters. After enveloping three plates, he walked to the bar, took a toothpick, and remarked that "they might talk about their lunches, but he'd be d-d if the Union didn't set the best lunch of any house in the State." Brandt appreciates the joke, and requests the servant to remove the cleaned plates.

"Gentlemen of the jury" said a western lawyer "I don't mean to insinuate that this gentleman is a covetous person, but I'll bet five to one that if you should bait a steel trap with a new three cent piece, place it within three inches of his mouth; you could catch his soul. I would not—the Court and gentlemen of the jury—I would not trust him in a room with a millstone and the Angel Gabriel to guard it."

According to almanacs there will be an almost total eclipse of the sun on the 5th of May next, visible throughout this State. There will also be an eclipse of the sun on the 30th of October next.

MARRIED, at the Chowchilla, Mariposa county, Nov. 21st, by Justice McVicar, J. J. Westfall, to Miss Mary Tong-u-hie, of China.

LATE one festive night, in one of the northern towns, a citizen was seen taking home a discouraged dominie, who had tarried too long at the wine. "Hush! Scat!" said he, "don't you see I'm supporting the Gospel!"

BIG WORM.—A Schenectady lady was recently relieved of a tape worm which measured eighteen feet nine inches. The monster was expelled by the use of a very simple remedy—namely, pumpkin seeds.

THE ORIGIN OF WHISK.—The origin of what does not go further back than eighty years, Lord Lyndhurst, born in 1773, was a devoted adept of this game. It is to him that is owing that manner of playing namely, when a person holds a single card of a suit that he at once plays it out, and which is known by the name of a "Singleton." This name is derived from its inventor, Sir John Coply Singleton.

LONGFELLOW, in his poem, "Hiawatha," has the following: "He seized his grandmother, and threw her up into the sky at midnight. Right against the moon he threw her. 'Tis her body that you see there.' Grinnibbowawaaacoolaitaico, the deputy-sheriff of the tribe, was on the track of the villain at last accounts."

AN ANCIENT LAWSUIT.—The supreme tribunal of Madrid has just given final judgement in a suit which has been under litigation two hundred and forty years, and which involved the succession to the inheritance of Francis Pizarro, the famous invader and conqueror of Peru in 1532.

QUINCY.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 9, 1863.

THE LAST OF EARTH.

As will be seen by reference to our outside columns, the Masons of Honey Lake (Lassen Lodge) presented a petition to Plumas Lodge No. 60, for the privilege of interring Judge Israel Jones, a deceased Mason, which petition was readily and cheerfully granted.

A Committee of seven members took charge of the body and escorted it to Susanville, where it was delivered to Lassen Lodge. On Tuesday, the services of the Masonic Ritual were held over the body, and he was consigned to his last resting place in the graveyard at Susanville.

The procession which followed him to the grave, was a very large one; there being nearly five hundred in it; between forty and fifty Masons, and a large number of ladies.

The QUINCY BRASS BAND went over with the body, and gave their services which added immensely to the solemnity of the occasion.

Quite a delegation of our townspeople went over, and everything betokened the strong hold which the deceased held on the affection of the people of this county.

The services at the grave were performed by L. C. Charles, W. M. of Plumas Lodge, and John S. Ward, W. M. of Lassen Lodge, and when the words of the ceremony, "Soft and safe, my Brother, be this thy earthly bed," the broken sobs and falling tears of all, male and female, Mason and Cowan, showed that each one felt his loss.

The deceased was a native of the State of New York, leaves a father and mother still living in that State; was a volunteer in the army, and was wounded so severely that it incapacitated him from serving any longer. He came to California in 1852, and in October 1862 was elected county Judge of this county; a man of genius, a deep original thinker, eloquent and convincing in his speech. We have lost one who had lived, would have made his mark in the history of this State and country.

But, death waits not on genius more than on idiot, and he is gone—the places that knew him will know him no more forever. But sudden and unexpected as was his taking off, we may at least hope, that his lot is changed from the evils and disappointments of this life, to that better world, where sickness and sorrow are unknown.

INDEPENDENT.—The "Heaven works." The departure from regular nominations, inaugurated in San Francisco, has extended to Virginia City; the Sacramento Union, declares that "It is only in extreme cases where an independent movement can be justified." Had the Sacramento Union lent that counsel during our troubles it would have had such an influence as to circumscribe Independent organizations in this State to San Francisco. As it is, its good intent comes too late, and the Independents are on the increase. Too much caution is a losing game, far when a man believes a thing, it is a poor plan to "swerve from motives of policy." We commend the fruits of the tree, to our good neighbors of the Alta, Bulletin, Bee and Appeal.

THE WEATHER.—Old Californians say that this winter is without parallel; no severe storms have yet occurred, traveling is good over nearly all the mountain roads, the days are warm and sunny, and the nights though cold are clear and bright. During the past week a light sleet of snow is all to warn us that it is January. Unless storms come pretty soon the probability is that this county will "dry up," for the winter is one half gone, and no storm yet. It would be terrible if the storm king had forgotten us.

SICK.—At the recent Convention held in Virginia City, a committee was appointed to wait on Edgerton and conduct him to the Convention; they went, but found Henry "very sick." Henry Edgerton is a genius, a good man, and capable of filling any position when sober, but he is not sober often enough.

It is none of our business but we beg our neighbors in Nevada, to beware of sending a man to Washington who may prove a counterpart to our own drunken McDougal.

Q. E. D.—How do Ridge of the National and Street of the Express like the new Democratic platform, which will transform them from lambs of peace to wolves of war. Like Charles Lamb's general, "They have been lambs, they will be lambers."

PROOF POSITIVE.—To love the Union and wish to see it whipped. To be loyal and praise the enemies of the country? Such is copperhead logic.

THE NEW COUNTY.—The citizens of Honey Lake Valley recently held a meeting to take into consideration the propriety of moving for a new county. Those present were about equally divided between a new county and for the cession to the new State of Nevada of all the country lying beyond the summit; but the California vote proved the largest so all minority and majority joined for a new county. James D. Byers has started to Sacramento with the intention of working for it, and if there be no opposition from Siskiyou, in which county Surprise Valley is situated, we think the new county will go through the present Legislature.

We may have done some injustice to our Honey Lake friends in our remarks of last week, but from the source whence we received the information that they were working to have Beckworth, Sierra and Big Meadows included in their boundaries, we gave to their report no small degree of confidence. Since then, we have seen and conversed with nearly all the leaders of the movement, and are satisfied that no such move is seriously intended; still, our object was a good one, and if we erred it was through fear of a new county.

EVIL TIMES.—Under the above head, our contemporary of the Red Bluff Beacon is horror-stricken that the time has arrived when an editor in California confesses to a reverence for John Brown.

Our opinion of John Brown has not changed since with a dozen men he scared the motherly old State of Virginia so. We looked upon him as an enthusiast, one whose brain had been unsettled by Democratic attentions in Kansas; but then there was a "method in his madness," and if the editor of the Beacon will live a very few years longer, he will find that mad as he was considered, yet it was of that species which the ancients declared sacred. The Beacon may consider John Brown a traitor, but the editor of this paper will still reverence old John Brown, one bone of whose dead body is worth more than the whole carcass of a copperhead editor.

The Butte Record thinks that the copperheads, the agricultural capabilities, the tanning and turpentine resources, and accessibility to the Humboldt and Boise regions, will eventuate in making Butte County the wealthiest in the State.

Appeal.—The gold, silver and copper ledges, placer and hill mining claims, the "agricultural capabilities" of Indian, American, Honey Lake and Beckworth valleys, not to mention Humboldt, Big Meadows and Mohawk Valley. The great demand for lumber, of which we have any quantity, and the other resources of Plumas county will "eventuate" in placing this county in the same category, provided the Legislature don't cut off and make two or three new counties out of our present territory.

VICE PRESIDENT.—Selkirk of the Stars and Stripes thinks that the next Vice President may be taken from California; Kirk, we know to whom you refer, but don't you think Andy Johnson would add more strength to the ticket? We will give the nominees 25,000 majority, but there are places where it may be necessary to coax a little, and our border State friends are some of them a little weak in the knees. Patience Selkirk our time has not come yet, when it does come we are with you.

BAD TASTE.—The Pajaro Times, Sierra Democrat and Calaveras Chronicle, are waging a wordy war against McDonald of the Sonora Flag; and it would seem by reading their papers, that each one was trying to outdo the other in blackguardism. So far, it is an even fight, and we are somewhat anxious to know which one will secure the prize, for being the greatest blackguard.

SHOULD IT BE NECESSARY to put up Gen. McClellan on a strong war platform in order to defeat the Black Republican nominee, we predict that both the Express and Beacon will support him.—Red Bluff Beacon.

Should it be necessary to put up C. L. Vallandigham on a strong peace on any terms platform, we predict that the same papers will support him.

NEW GOSPEL OF PEACE.—We have received a copy of the above named work, said to be written by Doesticks. It is decidedly rich, and shows that author has some knowledge of the scriptures, and considerable "bak bahn."

COURTY JUDGE.—There is quite a stir among applicants in this county to succeed to the position of the late Judge Jones. We have heard of five who are "willin'" but at present there is but small show for belief that any one of the new applicants will succeed, as Jones never qualified for the office, and the probability is that Hogan will hold over until an election can be held, at least that is the prevailing opinion just now.

SUSANVILLE.—This place is rapidly improving. The store of Miller & Kingsley is completed, and they have a fine stock of goods. New buildings are going up in every direction, and in a short time the town will be of no small importance.

THE DIFFERENCE.—"R. C. C." a correspondent of the Sierra Standard writing from Unionville, N. T., gives his opinion in regard to the mines of Humboldt and Reese River as follows: "But I am now satisfied that the Humboldt region contains the richest silver mines in the world, when fairly developed. Reese river, when compared to this country, in regard to well defined and permanent ledges is partially a humbug. Any of the ledges I have spoken of would make one dozen of the Reese ledges combined, as they are large and full of mineral, while those of Reese are so small, that they only vary from the thickness of a knife blade to four inches in width. But there is no denying the fact that Reese has some rich mineral, although it costs one thousand dollars to extract one ton of ore from a mine, and that will only yield two or three hundred dollars. Hence, I consider it a failure. Here all the excavations necessary to be made is on rock and ore that yields handsomely without being compelled to blast our way three-quarters of the time through solid limestone, etc., to get a small amount of paying ore."

NEW SUPREME COURT.—This court was organized this morning. By the statute it is provided that the Judges elect shall draw lots for the length of their terms. The names were in one paper and the figures in another. Supreme Justice Crocker drew the names and John Byrnes ball of the Court, the figures. The result was as follows: S. W. Sanderson, of El Dorado, two years. By the law the one who draws the shortest term is Chief Justice, consequently Judge Sanderson is elected to that important position. It was the last figure but one drawn. The last drawn was that of Judge A. L. Rhodes, of Alameda, drew the longest term, ten years. Lorenzo Sawyer of San Francisco, six years; and John Currey, of San Francisco, four years. John Byrnes was elected Bailiff.—Bee.

FASHIONABLE TABLE TALK.—Since the arrival of our Russian visitors, the Russian termination of names has been adopted in the fashionable circles. The following is a specimen: "Good morning, Miss Smithski—how is your health this morning?" "Please pass me the pepperdoff, my friend." "A little mustard, if you please." "Waiter, small have you any gingerbrot?" "A small piece of beefsteakski." "A little more hot coffsky, Johnndorff," etc.

The Oregon Statesman says that if anything were wanting to fill the measure of Benedict Arnold's infamy, it is that he should be alive now, and a Vallandigham copperhead.

We think "the measure" pretty well filled as it is, for there are several noted Copperheads a d—d sight more infamous than Arnold the traitor ever was.

"Who shall ask of an enemy, whether he succeeded by stratagem or by valor? Either mode is to be adopted in cases of avowed hostility. The only question is, which is most likely to insure success? If the Lion's skin cannot, the Fox's shall."

O. D. AVALINE.—This gentleman, editor of the Folsom Telegraph, died on the 26th of Dec. 1862, at Folsom. Avaline was a good writer, and poured out the vials of his wrath on us; but the grave is a great mollifier, and we sincerely regret his death, and beg to add our mite of praise to his memory.

NEVADA.—The papers in the "will try to be" State of Nevada, are divided upon the question, whether the Constitution put forth by the late Constitutional Convention shall be adopted or not. The general impression appears to be that it will be defeated.

MONTEREY GAZETTE.—That is the name of a new paper published at Monterey Cal. It is an out and out Union paper, and we wish it success.

The following is from the Oroville Union:

Our County, having by an Act of the last Legislature, been placed in the Second Judicial District, composed of the counties of Butte, Plumas, and Tehama, and over which, the Hon. Warren T. Sexton, was elected to preside. The next regular term of our District Court commences in March. The voters have by their choice, re-elected Judge Sexton, to preside over the Second Judicial District, by the largest majority ever given to any candidate in this county, or the old District. In so doing, it exhibits a just appreciation of his known legal ability and experience, by the people.

SAGEL.—About a week ago the papers published a very romantic story about a gentleman marrying a servant girl at a Reese River hotel, whom he fell in love with at first sight, popped the question without ceremony, and was spliced instantly. We now read a story from the same quarter, which appears to be a sequel to the other one, and which informs us that a young girl applied to one of the courts for a divorce, the day after her marriage, representing that she had been drugged. That spoils the romance of the affair.—Sierra Democrat.

SACRAMENTO UNION.—The Sacramento Daily Union of Friday Morning January 1st, contained according to printers measurement, three hundred and four thousand four hundred and thirty-two words, or "matter," set up expressly for that issue.

THANKS.—To Senator Gaskill of Butte Co. for copies of reports, &c.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of

Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, is already secured in a position which places it, as well as the proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and calumny. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of Medical Science, and they occupy with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Record is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapka has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary admettem degree. Selecting this as his field of operations, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapka has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as a matter of interest to their patrons in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.

LOCAL ITEMS.

DISSOLUTION.—See notice in another column of a dissolution of partnership.

DOING WELL.—The Bergs Quartz Mill on Rush Creek is paying well.

RETURNED.—Messrs. Chambers and Garland, who have been on a trip to the Humboldt and Washoe mines, arrived in town a few days since.

PAK-EMPTION.—Parties who wish to pre-empt Government land, are required to file an oath with the Land Agent duly attested by the county Recorder.

WHAT TELLS.—Over $12,000, was shipped to San Francisco one day last week, it being the amount taken out of the Indian and Round Valley Quartz Mills, for one week's run.

SICKNESS.—Plumas County, this winter has been a paradise for doctors, unhealthily to an alarming extent. The generality of diseases are of a congestive nature, and terribly malignant. We this week have to record five deaths.

ASSESSMENT.—The trustees of the North American G. & S. Mining Co., have loved an assessment, of fifty cents upon each share in said Company. They have four men at work running the tunnel, and are within one hundred and fifty feet of the ledge.

PURCHASED.—A. Bonna Esq., has purchased the property known as the Nelson Creek House, and requests all parties indebted to the former owners, to come forward and settle. See advertisement.

CANDIDATE.—Gen. H. P. Russell, formerly of American Valley, was a candidate before the Union Convention which met at Carson City some time since, for the office of Treasurer, but was defeated.

NEW FIRM.—J. R. Loran Esq., has purchased the Saloon at Rich Bar. And J. S. Sims and J. R. McShane have formed a partnership for the purpose of carrying on the butchering business. See advertisement.

THE REASON.—Several of our subscribers have requested us to send a copy of the Carriers New Year address, but we cannot comply, for the reason that none of our friends could get the "Machine" under headway. Therefore, no address was issued.

REMOVAL.—We understand that a remonstrance is being circulated in Beckwith and Long Valley, opposing the pet scheme of some of the citizens of Honey Lake, who wish to include those valleys in the boundaries of the proposed new county. The citizens of that section with hardly an exception are opposed to the measure.

COUNTY JURY.—Owing to the fact that the Judge elect, the late Hon. J. A. Jones did not take the oath of office before his death, the present incumbent holds over until an election is ordered and his successor elected and qualified. We presume the Legislature will order an election in a short time.

MISSING.—Mr. Baxter a citizen of Honey Lake Valley, has been missing for some time past, and fears are entertained that he has been murdered. He left Honey Lake about a month ago, with a team loaded with grain, which he intended to take to Reese River. He was last seen at Virginia City, which place he left with the purpose of going directly to Austin. Since that time no trace of him or his team, has been found.

PARDONED.—Gov. Stanford issued a pardon on the 26th of Nov., last, releasing Atlas Frendryer from the State Prison. A petition was circulated sometime since, and signed by several of our citizens for the release of Frendryer. It may be the best, that he has been pardoned, but we "can't see it," and are at a loss to know how any person who heard the trial or knew the particulars of the case, saw the "injustice." The following are the Governor's reasons for pardon.

Atlas Frendryer, convicted of the crime of assault to commit rape, in Plumas county, May, 1892, and sentenced to six years imprisonment, circumstances have since occurred to leave a strong doubt on the minds of the Judges, District Attorney and several prominent citizens as to the justice of his sentence, and in consideration of his previous good moral character, was discharged from custody.

Gossier.—A small town or a village is a pleasant place to live in—much more pleasant than a large and crowded city. In the latter you may ask a man who has his next-door neighbor is, who has been living there for months, maybe years, and he will tell you he is sorry he cannot inform you, but he has never spoken to him nor asked his name. Not so in a town as large as Red bluff. Your neighbor not only knows you and can tell your pedigree, but he can tell all about your family affairs, your business, and indeed can almost say what you have had for breakfast in ten minutes after you have swallowed it. Let a gentleman get a new coat or a hat, or a lady a bonnet or even a calico dress, and the matter forms a subject of conversation for the gossipers. If a young gentleman sees fit to spend a few hours in a young lady's company, it is a settled thing he is going to marry her in less than a month. These are only some of the comforts and blessing which we enjoy at Red Bluff, which our San Francisco and Sacramento friends know nothing of. Little cases of scandal fly like wild fire. If a married man is a little jealous of his wife every person in town finds it out, and the whole population pitches upon her and denounces her as the vilest of the vile. If a married lady should walk to a place of amusement or take a buggy ride with other than her husband, a certain class hold up their hand in horror and say she is no better than she ought to be, and the gentleman is a dirty dog. But we have noticed that these indignant ones will invariably hear watching themselves. Those in glass houses should not throw stones. Let every one attend to his or her own business, and we will have a more pleasant community to live in.—Beacon.
